to politics but I am saying we are Christian people and one of the Ten Commandments is, "Remember, thou keep Holy the Sabbath day" and what law was passed, the Blue law. We have to stand on our Ten Commandments and keeping the Sabbath day holy isn't running into the Fair on Sunday. We have six days a week we can do things.

The Jewish people are holy people and they will not break their Sabbath. Are we less holy? Is there something you can do on Sunday that you can't do any other day of the week? I'll tell you something you can do, save money, stay home and keep holy the Sabbath day. You want to love Jesus? Keep His Ten Commandments. This is one of the Commandments keep holy the Sabbath day.

I don't want to talk about politics; the only paper I read is the educational paper, the Funnies, I can tell you about what Little Lilly and Archie did. I pray for the politicians and I say, "Father God, whoever they are watch over them, protect them, and get into office, Dear Father, the ones that are going to lead us to a holy life, to have good morals and good standards."

So if we are going to make a commitment to God, love is the first promise for this year. You love the Father, you obey the Ten Commandments of the Church. Go to Mass on Sunday;

"Honor thy father and thy mother." God the Father did not say "Honor your father and mother, if he or she is a good man or woman." There are no stipulations, honor your father and your mother regardless. If they are drunks, if they are bums, whatever, you are to honor them; it is a Commandment by God. This stands out very strongly and I know someone needs it. Tonight you are getting the Light to use this, "Honor thy father and mother, regardless of what they are in your sight." You are not perfect, you could be judging them, and even if they are doing something you have to honor them. This is an act of love from the Father.

There is another Commandment that stands out "Do not covet thy neighbor's wife or thy neighbor's goods." There it is – Love – love of God; you will not covet things that are not in your reach. You will love your husband, your wife, your family, your friends, your enemies– which you shouldn't have. This is the first promise you should make for the New Year and I guarantee you will be changed people, you will be loving people. When you are changed and you are filled with love for God, the Spirit takes over and He flows in your soul.

The Father want you to obey these two Commandments: Love God with your whole heart, your mind, your body and your soul and Love your neighbor as yourself. That's one resolution.

Panalangin para sa pamamagitan ni Eileen George (Prayer in Tagalog)

Ama naming mapagmahal,sa iyong lubos na kadakilaan, itinaas mo ang iyong anak na si Eileen George upang makaisa mo sa iyong kaluwalhatian at sa kanya ay ipinahayag ang misteryo ng iyong kaharian. Sa kanyang halimbawa ay napukaw ang mga kaluluwa sa pagnanais makamtan ang kabanalan. Ipinangako nya para sa amin na makamtan ang mga biyaya na mistulang mga bulalak na nagmumula sa kalangitan, sa panahon na marating nya ang kanyang tahanan sa langit.

Kung ito ay naaayon sa iyong kalooban, buong pagpapakumbabang isinasamo ko na ipagkaloob mo sa akin sa tulong ni Eileen George ang aking kahilingan: _____. Ito ay hinihiling ko sa kanyang pamamagitan at sa Pangalan ng iyong anak na aming Panginoong Hesukristo, nabubuhay at naghahari kasama mo at ng Espiritu Santo, Diyos magpakailanman et magpasawalang hanggan. Amen.

Dasalin ang isang Ama Namin, Aba Ginoong Maria, at Luwalhati.

A word from Father Jay Finelli

Celebration of Eileen giving 23 years of retreats at St. Paul of the Cross Retreat House, Pittsburgh, PA

Eileen George was a woman of extraordinary faith. Even in the midst of great suffering she remained faithful to Our Lord and the Church. She lived her life in fidelity to her state of life and her spiritual life flourished. Eileen was always obedient to her spiritual director, her Bishop and the Church. Her life is one that we do not see too often. Eileen's spiritual director, Fr. Raphael Simon, said that she was one of the few to reach the heights of mystical union with all three Persons of the Holy Trinity. To reach this level, a soul must go through the darkest night of the soul and go through an intense purification. All of Eileen's sufferings and her joyful acceptance of them, contributed to this awesome work of God. In November, we sent you a letter requesting testimonials from people who personally knew Eileen and can contribute anything to the possibility of a future Ecclesiastical investigation into her life and holiness. Until there is an official cause, there can be no official interviews. However, under the advice of Bishop Joseph Pepe we sent out the letters. It is important to gather as much information as we can since we do not have a time line and we do not know who will not be able to give interviews when that time comes. This is why we need your help with testimonials. If you did not receive a letter with information on the testimonial letters, please send us a letter requesting one and we will get it off to you as soon as possible. Until there is an official cause, continue to ask Eileen's assistance with our Prayer for the Intercession of Eileen George. The prayer card is now available in English, Italian, Korean, Portuguese, and Spanish. Of course the website has it in 13 languages.

God love you!
Fr. Jay Finelli

Excerpt from Eileen George's Teachings

New Year's Resolutions

Many of us are making New Year Resolutions to start the new year. By the grace of God, it is going to be a holy, happy and a healthy new year because we are bringing God into our life. And every day it is going to be like Christmas morning -- filled with love and holy expectation and the only present we want is the love and the friendship of Jesus Christ, and His loving Father, and the Spirit dwelling in us. But how can we do this? It is difficult to always live in God's grace, in God's light. It's always so easy to drift.

You know we hear so many "Don'ts." Don't do this and don't do that, we become tired of being Christians, especially Catholic Christians. We have a mark upon our soul when we are called, by the grace of God, to be Catholic Christians, to be Eileen with with parents of baby who received a healing.

Christians at all – we are loved. People expect us to be different and that is what we are going to do this holy season and the rest of this coming year. We are going to be good solid Christians; good solid Catholic Christians. We have but One God, He is our Daddy. Regardless of color, race or creed, He is our Dad and He loves us; and He is going to stand by us this coming year.

Well, getting back to our resolutions, do you know why we break them? Because they are a heavy burden upon us, we hate to be the "Don't" people, we like to be the "green light" go-ahead people, do whatever you please. So if we use all these resolutions I guarantee they will be broken; they won't even be kept for a month, they will be broken.

We Are On A Journey

You are on a journey, through God's loving grace, through my talks and being open to grace, to meet the Father, the Son and the Divine Holy Spirit, in a new way and we are going to have a guide leading us to the three Divine Persons. It's like being on a pilgrimage. You know when the hunters go exploring, they have a guide with them when they are going into the deep wilderness and they have ammunition and a gun. So we are going into the deep wilderness of joy and love to meet the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and our ammunition and our resolution is but one – and it is to love, love, and love.

Make A Resolution of Love

If you make the resolution to use the ammunition of loving first God, with your whole heart, your whole mind, your body and your soul, and then to love your brothers and sisters, you will keep every resolution.

How can you love your family, truly love your family and drink, fight, separate yourself from them, cheat on your wife, cheat on your husband, use naughty words, cause frustration and anxiety in the family? You couldn't do this if you truly loved them because you wouldn't want to hurt them. But if you learn to love the Father, you won't disappoint Him. Sure we have faults, we are human and God loves us; He is our Daddy. He understands if we fall, but He can't understand you not reaching your hand out to say, "Please Daddy, help me up. I want to begin again." This is hard. He is always there. He doesn't count the times we fall, He counts the times we get up and begin anew. So if your resolution for this year is a resolution to love God first and then to love your brothers and sisters you are going to keep it. I know it is so hard. I want to give you positive things to do rather than don't eat, don't drink, don't do this, don't don't, don't. "Don'ts" gets you nervous and it actually causes you to break your resolutions.

I'm afraid of the don'ts. You know, I was a nun, a very young nun, in my early teens, and I was full of life and full of pep. They needed a harness on me. Sometimes, when they would have religious meditation the Mistress would send me out to ice skate, to get rid of some of this anxiety, to calm myself down.

I had a Mistress that I loved dearly and I just adored my Mother Provincial, even though we couldn't communicate. She spoke nothing but Italian and I knew only English. I learned Italian later, by God's grace. But everything was, "Eileen, don't move so much in Chapel, you're squirming. Eileen, don't juggle your beads" and I was juggling them; I probably woke up the dead. But everything was "Don't, don't, don't." I was so young. Then one morning, just as we were going into Chapel, she pointed her loving hand at me and said, "Now, don't squirm so much, you'll get the priest nervous, don't turn around, don't mess up your book, don't make noise with your pages," and as I was sitting in the pew, I kept thinking, "Eileen, sit up straight, don't do this, don't do that." You know what happened? I got so nervous, when it was time to go to Communion I knelt before the priest, he went to give me Communion and I let out a big burp! It was because I was nervous, I was so nervous.

So I don't want to be the "Don't" person to you. I want to say go ahead and love your brothers, go ahead and love your sisters. Fill yourself with love and it will give you a very positive attitude. You won't whiplash at your brother; it is so hard sometimes to swallow something. You say, "Boy, I'd like to sock him." But that is not virtue. I want you people to be such a loving group. I want people to know, by God's grace, we are changing and the only way we can change is, "Love one another."

I want to help continue Eileen's work and teaching!

You know we can go to all the prayer meetings in the world and when Judgment Day comes God is not going to say, "Tom, Dick, Harry, Sue - how many prayer meetings have you gone to?" He will say, "Have you loved one another as I have loved you?" So that word is very, very important.

You could go to prayer meetings and you can be phonies – phony-baloney. I have a woman that calls me up all the time, God love her, and she is preaching to me forever. I put the phone down, I walk away and do my work and come back and she is still going. Then her daughter calls me up and says, "Eileen, my mother is a walking devil. She preaches all day on the phone and she is mean to us. She is mean to my Dad." Is that what we want to be known as? No way. We want our children to see a change in us this year, and that change will stem only from loving God and loving one another.

Korean Catholic Charismatic 5/31/2011

It is very good to go to a prayer meeting but is it bringing about a change in your life? Is it bringing a change in your Community, your family, your place of business? If not, there is something wrong with us. All the resolutions you make in the world won't amount to a row of beans, because you are being a phony before man, but God knows the secrets of our hearts. You must be honest, and look in the mirror and say, "Am I changing?" Sometimes I look in the mirror and say, "Yuck! How could He love me? Yuck!" especially when I get up in the morning. But think of that, be honest with yourself, don't be a phony. Don't pretend you are something that you are not.

Get Right with God

Get right with God and the way to get right with God is "Love one another." It will show in your face, it will show in your actions, it will be a complete change in your life because you will do things differently in your home; you won't want to disgrace your husband, your children, your wife. And the wives want to bring nothing but honor to their husbands. Ask Him for this resolution tonight, "Oh Father God, Daddy, please give us the grace to love You above everything on earth and then to love one another as You love us."

"Oh, I can love Susie, but I can't love Timmy, he's a creep." God loves Him; God brings something good in every one of us. We all have something good. We are not perfect, but there is something good if you only look for it. But being in a negative world we look at everything with a negative way.

I hear many people saying, "My husband does this, that and the other thing." "My wife does this, that and the other thing." And my answer is, "Do you go to Confession and tell your wife's sins or do you tell your own?" I want to hear what you are doing. What are you doing? What are you doing that brings on this temperament to your wife or your husband? Why are you hiding behind his or her faults? None of us are perfect. We want to be perfect people but you cannot achieve perfection without love.

So this should be our resolution this year. Never mind drinking, using naughty words, or not eating, or staying away from candy and gum. I can give you a list ten miles long. I am just giving you a list of Number One: Love God with your whole heart and soul. How can I love God with my whole heart and soul? Obey the Commandments of the Church.

One Commandment that comes to my mind tonight is "Remember, thou keep Holy the Sabbath day." I am not in
