times, but there was only one good thing he did in his life. He promised his mother that he would say a Rosary every single day of his life and this is practically the only good thing that he ever said, his daily Rosary. Well he was dying alone in a very shabby apartment room, very humble, very poor, dirty. And he was dying alone with the Beads in his hand and his thought was, "Oh, if I could only have a Priest come to me."

Well on the other side of the city there was a Priest who loved Mary very much and he was about getting ready for bed and the telephone rang and he said, "Yes." And they said, "There's a man very sick on this certain street, in this certain room. He's calling for a Priest. Father," this lady said, "Would you please go to him?" And Father said, "Yes." And Father ran to that apartment, the filthy, dirty place, of housekeeping and one rooms. He said to the shabby lady that came out, "Is there a man in this room here dying?" She said, "There's a man in this room but he doesn't want a Priest." And Father said,"I have to get to him." And she said, "Nobody called you from here." He said, "Please let me go." "Go if you will," she said. And when Father swung the door open in there was a man dying in his bed, grasping the Rosary. Father gave him Confession and Absolution and then the man died in the State of Grace.

The next day Father asked his answering service why they didn't take that call and they said, "Father, no call ever came here." And he said, "But they called in my room." And they said, "Father, no call ever came through." So you see the Blessed Mother must have given the man this grace because he said the Rosary and she got in touch with Father through the telephone because there's no other account of this phone ringing in Father's room – the power of the Rosary beads.

I beg of you, treasure your Beads and if you don't have a pair of Beads buy some. Taste and see how sweet Mary is, how she loves you, how she delights in you as her children. Please, at least try it for one full week; try it and you will like it. You will find a peace beyond all understanding, you will find joy, peace, you will know that you have a mother you can run to, you can tell all your secrets to, a mother you can be open with and truly trust, a Heavenly Mother. You will be a better person for having said the Beads and you will draw closer to Mary and Jesus her Son and the Father and the Holy Spirit because you are invoking them also.

Please, say your Beads and find peace with your God, with Mary and the Trinity.

Eileen's Prayer to Mary

Oh Mary, our dearest Mother, we truly love you, Mary because we know you are the Mother of Jesus Christ. We see you at the foot of the Cross, we see you at the manger. Oh Mary, when we enter our Church we see you; you are so beautiful. We are so human, Mary, and yet we know there is something wonderful about you. Oh Mary, please help us as teenagers, Mary be our Mother, be our friend. Mary, we never said many Rosaries, if any, in our whole life, please acquire the grace from Jesus to desire to say the Rosary. Give us the grace to purchase a Rosary and to offer to you, Mary, bouquets of roses each day. Oh Mary, our dearest Mother, you know we're teenager and we'll get away from this, but please help us, help us by interceding for us to the Father, to the Son and the Holy Spirit, to give us the desire to say the Beads every day, to profess our faith with the "I believe in God," to say the most perfect pray, the Our Father, to say the Hail Marys begging your intercession, Mary our Mother and the Glory Be to the Father, acknowledging the Trinity.

Oh Mary, please help us. We love you and we want you to be our Mother and our friend. We don't know too much about you, Mary, please open the eyes and the window of our souls so we may learn to love you, to understand that you are our Mother but we need grace for this Mary. Please intercede to the Father for us to receive the grace and to accept it and to digest it, to love the Beads. Oh Mary, we place this cause in your hands, please bring it to the Father and to your Son. Oh Divine Holy Spirit, Mary is Your bride, Your spouse, help us.

A word from Father Jay Finelli

"Behold I make all things new." New Years is a time for resolutions. It's a time to strive to make ourselves new through God's grace and acceptance of grace. Spiritual growth is a life long journey as we strive to become the saint that God wills us to be. Although God could change our lives immediately, this is not the normal way of grace. We can't expect by some extraordinary intervention to become changed overnight without our personal effort. It takes hard work to grow in holiness. We must strive daily to overcome our sins, faults, failures, and all that keeps us from becoming the people God calls us to become.

Many people know Eileen for her extraordinary gifts. But that is not what made her holy. What made Eileen the person we all knew and loved was her desire to please the Father in everything she did in this life. It was not the gift of healing, knowledge or reading of souls that transformed her life. They were gifts the Father gave Eileen to lead us to Him. What made her great was that she fulfilled her daily duties as a wife, mother, and grandmother with the greatest care, and offered it all for the love of God. Eileen repeatedly said that our holiness lies in fulfilling our state of life. Extraordinary gifts of the Holy Spirit will not make us holy. They may in fact lead us into pride. All we need to reach the highest of holiness is be faithful in the little things as we offer it all to the Father out of love for Him.

May the Holy Spirit, shower us with the graces we need to embrace our ordinary life so as to become the saint that God has called each one of us to be.

Happy New Year!

Excerpt from Eileen George's Teaching

Befriend Your Rosary

I found it very difficult to grasp and hang onto the Rosary, until I realized in saying the Rosary we are calling upon the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. And we are asking Mary, through the Hail Marys, in a very powerful way, to intercede for us to the Father, to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

We begin the Rosary by blessing ourselves, "In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," see the Trinity -- we are calling upon, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. And when we say the "I believe in God," we are professing our faith, "I" as small and insignificant as I am, I believe, I truly believe in God. He is the Father Almighty, Creator of the heavens and the earth. So you see you profess your faith. Then by saying the Our Fathers in the Rosary and then the ten Hail Marys and the Glory Be to the Father, you are calling upon the Trinity and you are calling upon Mary and then you are giving glory to the Trinity.

Well here is what I do to make it a little more lively. I give our Blessed Lady spiritual bouquets of roses. When I say the Our Father, I use the Our Father as though I was buying a very special vase, a crystal vase, a cut glass vase, and the Our Father purchases this vase for me. So now I have the vase. And now for each Hail Mary, I offer a rose to Mary and I put it in this vase, like the first Hail Mary is a rose put into the vase. I offer the ten Hail Marys as ten beautiful roses put in this vase and I use the first decade as a bunch, a bouquet of yellow roses for Mary. Then I get the ten flowers, after the ten Hail Marys are done and I put them in the beautiful vase bought by the Our Father and with the Glory Be to the Father, I purchase a beautiful yellow ribbon to tie around the vase of yellow roses.

When I begin the next set of beads, I begin the Our Father and I purchase another beautiful crystal vase for Mary and for her bouquet of roses. And the second set of ten Hail Marys I offer each Hail Mary for a beautiful, beautiful pink rose for Mary. And I do the same thing for all ten beads. Ten beautiful roses, pink, put into this vase and at the Glory Be I tie it with a beautiful pink ribbon. So now I have two beautiful vases filled with flowers; the yellow roses and a big bouquet of pink roses. And then for the third set of beads I purchase the vase again, a beautiful crystal, cut glass vase by the Our Father and then when I say my ten beads, ten Hail Marys, I put ten beautiful bright red roses in this vase. See the roses are red this time; then when I come to the Glory Be to the Father, I tie it with the red ribbon.

Then I go on to the next one and buy my vase again with the Our Father and I put ten beautiful white roses in the next vase and tie it with the Glory Be to the Father, to a beautiful bouquet of white roses. Now I have four bouquets of roses. And now I come to the last set of beads, I purchase a beautiful vase once more by the Our Father and there is a new rose out now called the blue rose. I say ten Hail Marys which puts ten beautiful blue roses into this vase and I tie it with a baby blue bow when I say the Glory Be to the Father.

Now it's time for the Hail Holy Queen. Well, in this Hail Holy Queen I imagine myself walking to Mary, kneeling before her saying,"Oh Mary, my Mother, I love you. I delight in you and I call you my Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of mercy." And while I'm saying this, at her feet I put the yellow roses and the beautiful pink roses at her feet. On the side I put the white roses, the red roses and the blue roses. And she is adorned with these beautiful, beautiful roses and then when I finish my Hail, Holy Queen, I tell her how much I love her.

The Rosary is very powerful before the Throne of God. God the Father so loved Mary that He allowed her, through her permission, to give birth to Jesus, He chose her to be the mother of His Son. I guarantee you, as teenagers, if you stay close to Mary you will walk the straight and narrow path to God. I beg of you to befriend Mary, she is your mother; she has been given to you by Jesus Christ. She says to each and every one of you, "Child, behold your Mother." Christ says, "Child, behold your Mother." Mary should be befriended by each and every one of you. You know it is not being a square or super-spiritual to say a Rosary. It is being very refine and grown up young man and women who can hold their Beads in their hand and say a Rosary.

I put my Rosaries on the dash of my car, and while I am riding along I say the Beads. You can say the Beads in the quietness of your bedroom, behind a closed door, if you wish. You can say your Beads on your knees, sitting in your chair, even while you are lying in bed at night. I know it is difficult to say the whole Rosary, but if you say just a little at a time, you will get in the knack of saying it, into the habit of saying your Beads, and you will find such a great peace flooding your very soul. You will find a contentment beyond all understanding and then on occasions where you seem like you can't make a decision or are afraid to, you will find such supernatural strength, and this strength can come from the Rosary. I beg of each and every one of you to draw close to Mary. She loves you; she delights in you. You are her child, her son or her daughter. She wants you to run to her in your needs. Her arms are always open for you, to embrace you, to hold you.

You see my friends, my teenager friends, God knew how difficult it would be for you going through the stage of being a teenager. He knew the trials and the tribulations and the problems you would face. So in His loving mercy He handed to you Mary so she could be your mother, your friend. So you could go to her with an open mind and heart with your problems and say, "Please, Mary, my Mother, help me with this problem. It is so difficult for me to fit in with my friends and not smoke or drink, or smoke pot or to use naughty words. Mary, I don't mean to be a square, help me and show me the way, guide me and lead me on the path to the Father. Help me in these problems so I don't look like a square to my friends. Help me to cope with them. Help me to set a good example. Intercede for me, Mary. I need you, my Mother. Show me the right path to Jesus, to Father God." And believe me she will help you, especially through the Rosary. Always keep a Rosary in your pocket, in your pocketbook, where you can grab on to it and ask Mary for her intercession.

The Rosary is a special gift given to you by the Blessed Mother. It is one of the ways to lead you to Jesus. You see I told you before it is calling upon the Father, professing your faith, I believe in God, calling upon Father God, upon Jesus. You are saying the most precious prayer, the Our Father, the prayer given to you by Jesus Himself. And then we are giving homage to Mary, saying, "Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed are thou amongst women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Oh holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinner, now and at the hour of our death, Amen." And you say ten of these Hail Marys. Then you say, "Glory Be to the Father, to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end, Amen." You're giving glory to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit - the Trinity. So you see you're invoking Father God, the Blessed Trinity and Mary.

I beg of you become acquainted with the Rosary. Mary loves you. She delights in you. I can almost guarantee that a person that says the Rosary faithfully will never be lost because Mary will watch over, protect you and lead you on the righteous path. Mary will receive from the Father the grace for you to be a good person.
